

Psychosocial Centres – Mullaitivu & Vavuniya Districts

1) Silawatte Government Tamil Mixed School, Mullaitivu

Silawatte GTMS is located in , in Mullaitivu District, close to Puthukudyirippu, which was the scene of the final battle in the war against terrorism. This area is remote and has been completely under the control of the LTTE for three decades and has seen little development. The people of this area have suffered the most during war and were only resettled in or January 2011

The school is home to approx 400 students and a room has been identified for the proposed Happiness Centre. Structural repairs has been carried out and only a coat of paint and equipment are needed for the centre.
